The Gull Classic

The strongest field in the short three-year history of the Salisbury State College Gull Classic basketball tournament takes to the floor tonight with the Dowling Golden Lions of Oakdale, New York meeting Mt. St. Mary's of Emmitsburg, Maryland in the opening game, while host Salisbury State will battle St. Thomas Aquinas of Sparkill, New York in the nightcap.

Dowling is considered the tourney favorite coming off a 21-8 season of a year ago to complete its ninth consecutive 20-victory season. The Golden Lions of Dick Berg advanced to the NAIA nationals a year ago prior to joining the NCAA (Division II) this season. Nine returning lettermen head the Dowling cagers with 6'6" senior swingman Tony Diaz, 5'9" junior guard Lem McCray and 6'4" senior forward Chris Williams heading the list.

The Mountaineers of Mt. St. Mary's return 6'5" forward Steve Rossignoli, 6'3" guard Jim Rowe and 6'4" forward Mike Pearson. The Mounts of Jim Phelan were 16-11 a year ago and like Dowling are NCAA Division II members. Rossignoli averaged 15.1 points a game last year while Pearson dumped in a 12.9 norm.

The host Sea Gulls, who have captured the first two Gull Classic titles, will have their hands full this year. Salisbury meets St. Thomas Aquinas tonight and the Spartans recorded a 24-10 slate last year. Returning lettermen include 6'0" senior guard Bob Kilduff, 6'6" senior forward Ino Gomez and 6'2" senior guard Rich Caulfield. The Spartans lost six players from last year but picked up experienced junior college transfers in 5'11" guard Mark McGuire, 6'6" forward Bill Moser and 6'3" forward Bill Michella. Freshman Pete Caruso also adds scoring punch for the New York quint.

Salisbury has managed but one victory in its first five games, but tends to be up for the Gull Classic. Junior swingman Juan Gabourel has been the big scorer for Salisbury State this year hitting 25.0 points a game. Jim Hunt, Tyrone Marshall, John Berens, and Jeff Sheets have also been vital factors in the rebuilding process for coach Ward Lambert.
